Louisiana Thoroughbred Breeders Association Mare Leaving State Form

The report of a mare leaving the state has to be filed with the LTBA office before the mare leaves. Failure to report an out-of-state move will result in a fine of $250. The fine may be waived with the proper proof of a Louisiana foaling and/or domicile record submitted and approved by the Grievance Committee. The mare owner has the burden of proof and all costs associated with it.

Form must be on file before mare leaves the State of Louisiana
